
Note: For Board member use of College District technology resources, see BBI.

For purposes of this policy, "technology resources" means electronic communication systems and electronic equipment.

Access to the College District's technology resources, including the Internet, shall be made available to students and employees primarily for instructional and administrative purposes and in accordance with administrative regulations.

Limited personal use of the College District's technology resources shall be permitted if the use:

1. Imposes no tangible cost on the College District;
2. Does not unduly burden the College District's technology resources; and
3. Has no adverse effect on an employee's job performance or on a student's academic performance.

Access to the College District's technology resources, including the Internet, shall be made available to members of the public, in accordance with administrative regulations. Such use shall be permitted so long as the use:

1. Imposes no tangible cost on the College District; and
2. Does not unduly burden the College District's technology resources.

The College President or designee shall develop and implement administrative regulations, guidelines, and user agreements consistent with the purposes and mission of the College District and with law and policy.

Access to the College District's technology resources is a privilege, not a right. All users shall be required to acknowledge receipt and understanding of all administrative regulations governing use of the College District's technology resources and shall agree in writing to allow monitoring of their use and to comply with such regulations and guidelines. Noncompliance may result in suspension of access or termination of privileges and other disciplinary action consistent with College District policies. [See DH, FL series, and FM series] Violations of law may result in criminal prosecution as well as disciplinary action by the College District.

Electronic mail transmissions and other use of the College District's technology resources by students, employees, and members of the public shall not be considered private. Designated College District
