

PURPOSE Any student at Galveston College has the right to appeal academic decisions or actions which he or she considers manifestly unjust or improper. The primary responsibility for assigning grades in a course belongs to the individual course instructor, and in the absence of compelling evidence of discrimination, differential treatment, or procedural irregularities, the judgment of the instructor responsible for the course must remain determinant.

LEVEL ONE INFORMAL STEPS A student who believes that an improper or incorrect grade was assigned should first take informal steps to resolve the situation. The request for a grade correction must occur within 30 calendar days of the end of the semester in which the grade was issued. The student should first discuss the matter with the instructor of record. If the matter is not resolved at this point, the student should discuss the matter with the appropriate program coordinator, program director, or division director, who will attempt to resolve the grade dispute. If the informal measures fail to satisfy the complainant, the student may file a formal appeal.

LEVEL TWO If an informal attempt to resolve the grade issue is unsuccessful, the following procedures will be observed at level two:

1. The student will submit within 15 calendar days of completing the informal process, but not later than 45 days from the end of the semester in which the grade was issued to the appropriate Dean or Division Director, in writing, a request for review using a Grade Appeal Form, which is available in the Office of the Dean or Division Director.
2. The Dean or Division Director, on receiving the request, will inform the instructor, the program coordinator or program director of the appeal, provide the instructor with a copy of the appeal, and request a written response from the instructor.
3. The Dean or Division Director shall review all material and information and seek an appropriate solution.

LEVEL THREE

If an appropriate solution is not reached by the Dean or Division Director or the Division Director shall forward the appeal to the Student Affairs Committee.

1. To review the complainant's request and evidence;
2. To consider the instructor's response;
3. To interview the complainant, the instructor, and any witnesses, if deemed appropriate by the committee, to corroborate documentary evidence; (A witness requested to testify by either the complainant or the instructor, or both, may decline.)
4. To call any witnesses, if deemed appropriate by the committee, to corroborate documentary evidence; (A witness requested to testify by either the complainant or the instructor, or both, may decline.)
5. The Student Affairs Committee shall render a decision which shall be communicated to the Dean or Division Director who in turn shall communicate the decision in writing to the student and to the instructor within ten working days following the report of the committee.

LEVEL
FOUR

If the matter is still not resolved by the Student Affairs Committee, the student may present a written request for review by the Vice President of Instruction. The Vice President of Instruction will review the appeal with the appropriate Dean or Division Director and render a decision.

If the outcome of the appeal to the Vice President of Instruction is not satisfactory, the student, upon receiving notice of the decision, submit a written appeal to the College President. The written appeal at a minimum must include a written reason for the appeal or a statement of the problem and/or complaint, and the expected resolution. The President may, at his/her sole discretion, choose to allow oral arguments on the petition. The President may act to affirm, modify, remand, or reverse the decision. If no action is taken within 60 days of the appeal, the appeal process ends with the decision of the President.
